FISHERMAN'S LUCK
GOOD DOWN THEREMr. Miller Finds Good Sport in Virginia.

NOT FAR FROM WASHINGTON

Three Hours by Train to Where All Sorts of Beauties Are Abundant.

Benjamin Miller, of this city, has just returned from a fishing trip in Virginia, and he brings most encouraging reports of the abundance of brook trout within three hours of Washington.

In company with W. D. Hoover, president of the National Sea Deposit Company, Mr. Miller went into the heart of the Blue Ridge mountains in Page and Madison counties, and there found native mountain trout, brook trout and the red speckled salmon in abundance. Mr. Miller brought home twenty-seven trout, while Mr. Hoover succeeded in catching eighteen. Besides these catches the party of two had fifty-one trout on the table during the four days at the farm house in the gaps.

There are three rivers near together in these counties, and as the waters are as clear as crystal, it would afford a fine place for local anglers to enjoy the sport at the season when they are so tired of the continued muddy waters of the Potomac.

PRINTERS DEFEATED
BY COMMISSIONERSMade Brave Fight But Lost by 4 to 1.
Pitchers Forced to Quit
by Heat.

A team composed of the picked players of the Government Printing Office League put up a most creditable game against the strong Commissioners club at National Park yesterday, losing by 4 to 1.

Brown, the Printers' pitcher, got a bad start in the opening round and before he had settled down the Commissioners had chased four runners across the plate. After that he succeeded in fooling his opponents and they were unable to score again.

Tommy Cantwell served them up for six innings for Helm's braves, but the extreme heat was too much for him and he gave away to Handiboe.

A return game between the two teams will probably be played some time next month. The Commissioners leave by boat this evening for Norfolk, where they will play a series of four games.

METROPOLITAN JUST BEAT OUT CALVARY

The Metropolitan Baptists eked out a victory of 5 to 4 over the hustling Calvary Baptist on the Northeast Grounds yesterday afternoon, by a grand batting rally in the ninth inning, though the Calvary boys gave them symptoms of heart failure by sending two runs across the pan in their turn at the bat in the same round.

There Was Much Doing
At Commandery PicnicColumbia No. 2 Was Host, But Lost Ball
Game to Orients No. 5—Umpire
Wolf Doubly Roasted.

One thousand people took River View by storm yesterday; nothing was too good for them except the heat, and they managed to stand even that for the sake of pleasure.

The cause of this gathering was an excursion given under the auspices of Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar.

As soon as the first boat arrived the grounds, where the principal event of the day was carried off with great success. Two teams picked, from the flower of the Columbia Commandery, No. 2, and Orient Commandery, No. 5, took the field, and there, amid the heat and grime, with the broiling hot sun beating down upon them, a battle royal was fought.

Orient Won.

For five full innings the players engaged the sun, and then, as they were about ready to melt, Umpire Dave Wolf raised the score from 9 to 9 in favor of the Orients. The game was a fine exhibition until the fifth, when Nelson's good right arm began to slowly melt, and he served the shots up in a manner to break the heart of his most ardent admirer. Then did the Orients take advantage of the low pressure behind the balls, and give the poor horridly several right heartily swats, which raised the score from 9 to 7 in favor of the Columbia to the final score of 15 to 9.

Dave Wolf, the mighty umpire of all fraternal organizations, was the man with the indicator, and although Dave afterward said that he was the only man on the diamond that did not get a square deal, the players and fans thought differently and besides being roasted by the rays of "Old Sol," he barely escaped being roasted at the stake.

Some Funny Races.

After the ball game came the races, and after the races were some contests that convulsed all present and made them forget all their troubles for the time being at least. The first race on the program was a 100-yard dash, which was won by James Britt, the second man being of the name of Nelson. A stout individual by the name of Walters won the hoop-race for persons over 120 but was given a tight race by Mr. Costinett. Henry Henderson, the wonderful slab artist of the Oriental ball team.

BASEBALL.

Rothgeb, who was chased out of the Nationals' fold, is considered the most timely hitter on the Baltimore team. Yesterday he got three hits in the game at Montreal. One of his bingles drove in the winning runs for the Orioles. The Times suggested that before Rothgeb be cast astray he be given a chance, but men who were not delivering the goods were given a preference over the collegian.

Frank McKeon, who played short for Cleveland in the Temple Cup series and was considered one of the best that ever guarded the position, is now doing utility roles for the Utica club.

Among the players that Charley Snyder, the local scout, looked over on his recent trip was Yale, the Bridgeport first baseman, who is being touted as a wonder. But Charley says he won't do.

Count Campau, who has been playing ball for twenty years and who once cavorted about the Senators' outfield, has been released from the management of the Birmingham club, of the New York League.

Tom Roland, The Times' Is Hub Hart, the former Georgetown football and baseball player, still with the Chicago White Sox, or has he jumped to the Vermont League?

Hart is still with the Chicago and battled against the Nationals in the ninth inning on Monday.

Tom Roland, The Times—Who is Washington's leading pitcher? R. L. Although Case Patten is the most sought for twirler on the National scene, the record for the season is the best of any of the local pitchers.

Manager Jones, of Chicago, refuses to sell or trade Jimmy Callahan to New York.

Captain Branzell has gotten together a pretty strong team to represent the local police force, and the Washington cops should be able to score another victory when they play in Baltimore Saturday.

Last week marked the ending of the first half of the National League season.

Charley Nichols joined the Phillies Monday and will take his regular turn in the box from now on.

Hanson as a manager will soon have made the circuit of the entire league. The latest club alleged to have signed him for next season is Boston. From Brooklyn to Boston is like the difference between twiddle-dee and twiddle-dum—Boston Globe.

Old Perry Werden essayed to pitch for his Greenville, Miss., team in the Cotton State League, the other day and his club was beaten 11 to 9.

Tom Roland, The Times—When was the first regular game of baseball played.

R. L. M.

The first game of which there is any record was played at Hoboken, N. J., on June 14, 1846, between two New York teams.

BOXING.

Kid Carter, who made a great record in the ring and gave Kid McCoy the worst beating that he ever received, has opened a cafe in New York. After won the next 100-yard dash, Jimmy Britt being second.

A potato race for girls and boys under fourteen was won by Margaret Conoley, with William Walton a close second. The 25-yard dash for girls was won by Miss Violet Donrick, who beat Miss Agnes Meagher by a head. The next event was the shotput, which was won by Mr. Costinett. Mr. Anderson gave Costinett a close pull, but could not quite throw the shot as far as the winner.

Ate for Prices.

After the assembled multitude had been served with a hearty dinner, Mr. Stinemetz brought forth several colored men, who gave an exhibition of cracker and watermelon eating. The crowd watched with great interest as the lean, lanky darkies gradually grew larger and stouter until, when at last it seemed as if there would be a black out, one husky individual, black as the ace of spades, who continued to peacefully eat along until stopped by Mr. Stinemetz.

In the evening a large 8x15 American flag was presented to the winning baseball team by Right Eminent Sir Frank H. Thomas, Sir Knight Cobill received the banner for the winning ball tossers, making a graceful reply. The flag was donated by C. H. Koster, of New York.

Escorted the Flag.

After the flag was in the hands of the players they carried it everywhere they went. The banner was ridden down the shoot-the-shute any number of times, and was also allowed to ride on the flying horses, and dance around the pavilion.

In spite of the heat the committee-men think that the excursion was a great success from every point of view. Anyone visiting the homes of any of the excursionists will find a most interesting and well worn yesterday stretched out on the line to dry.

The Ball Teams.

Oriental—Wagner, catcher; Henderson, pitcher; Hazelton, first base; Evans, second base; Baker, third base; Costinett, shortstop; Bonini, right field; Cobill, center field; the wonderful slab artist of the Oriental ball team, Umpire—Dave Wolf.

The fighters found Carter's weak point, the chin, his fighting days were numbered.

Al Neil, the California middleweight, is cleaning up everything in his class during his trip through Australia.

Eddie Hanlon announces that he will be ready to meet the winner of the Nelson-Britt go.

Philadelphia experts who have seen Jack Johnson, the colored champion, in action in a number of fights, opine that he would not be able to stand Jeffries off for many rounds. Who said he would?

Harry Forbes, the Chicago featherweight, who is matched to meet Rouse O'Brien, of Brockton, Mass., for fifteen rounds before the Douglas Athletic Club, of Chelsea, Mass., on the night of July 25, has arrived in New England and has started in to train for the mill.

TOM ROLAND.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 19.—The Newport Horse Show issued its prize list for the ninth annual exhibition, to be held at the Casino September 4, 5 and 6. Prizes are offered in fifty different classes, twenty in harness classes, seventeen for saddle horses, seven for hunters and jumpers, and six in championship classes.

GOOD COMING FIGHT.

BALTIMORE, July 19.—All the details are now settled for the coming contest between Young Peter Jackson and Jim Ryan, the middleweight champion of Australia. This match goes to the Hudson Athletic Club, of Canton, on July 21, and will be for fifteen rounds at 155 pounds.

The record for the season is the best of any of the local pitchers.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED.

Demand for a jury trial was made in the Police Court today by Elsie, a colored servant girl, who was arraigned by Clerk Potts on a charge of stealing a dress from her employer. She will be given a hearing in September.

Detective Farham and O'Brien, of the Central Office, arrested the woman yesterday on the complaint of Frank A. Steele, of 1439 Rhode Island avenue northwest, who reported to Captain Boardman at Police Headquarters, that a handsome silk dress had been stolen from his wife's boudoir. Suspicion fell upon the servant, who left the house before her regular time. Farham and O'Brien went to Elsie's home and found her sitting on the front steps, dressed plainly. The girl said she knew Elsie was entertaining several male friends at the time and she excused herself when the detectives said they wanted her for jury trial.

WOULDN'T SUIE HER.

Mrs. Spenders—I wonder how you'd like it if I ever got "new-womanish" and insisted upon wearing men's clothes. Mr. Spenders—Oh, I haven't any fear of you ever doing that. Men's clothes are never very expensive.—Philadelphia Press.

GARRISON FINISH
OVERCAME JUSTICELively Ninth Inning Rally by War Team After Two Were Out.

By a garrison finish the War team defeated the Justice aggregation in a spirited game yesterday on the White Lot, in the Departmental. Score, 11 to 13.

In the last part of the ninth, with the score 10 to 9, in the judges' favor and two out, Asquith slammed out a clean single, after two strikes and three balls had been called on him, that scored the two winning runs.

Interest in the game was at fever heat all through the game, and in the ninth enthusiasm was as high as the thermometer. The losers played a good game, and they will be heard from before the season is over. Kleinschmidt did mighty deeds for the judges.
